

DAWN-MARIE DRISCOLL
Southwest Florida Community Foundation

As an Executive Fellow at the Center for Business Ethics, Dawn-Marie's background as a corporate attorney has allowed her to combine together her work in the business ethics field, particularly with regard to ethics and corporate governance, and to provide consulting, teaching and other services to top executives and directors. Ms. Driscoll was on the faculty of the national Ethics and Compliance Officer Association and has been appointed a visiting scholar at two prominent universities and also is a frequent teacher, panelist, moderator and presenter about business ethics issues in the U.S. and England. She has written several books and numerous articles about business ethics published in the United States, Asia and Europe.

In 2005, she joined the Southwest Florida Community Foundation Board, where she also serves as Chair of the Finance Committee. The legal and business ethics experience she brings is a highly respected and skilled addition to the Board. Other organizations and committees she has worked with are:

- Advisory board member of the Center for Business Ethics, Bentley University.
- Member of the Board of Editors of Business and Society Review.
- Independent director and the chairman of the board of DWS mutual funds ($130 billion); independent director of Sun Capital Advisers Trust ($5 billion)
- Director of ICI Mutual Insurance Company
- Former member of the Board of Governors of the Investment Company Institute, the national association of mutual funds, (including the audit, nominating and executive committees) and chair of the ICI's Directors Service Committee
- Founding member of the Independent Directors Council, the national organization of mutual fund directors.
- Formerly a director, trustee and overseer of several institutions, including the Boston Municipal Research Bureau, the Downtown Crossing Association, WGBH-TV, The Massachusetts Bay United Way, and Regis College

She graduated from Regis College and Suffolk University Law School and has been Vice President of Corporate Affairs and General Counsel of Filene's, the Boston-based department store chain, as well as a partner at Palmer & Dodge in Boston.

Among Ms. Driscoll's awards and honors are the 1999 Mutual Fund Trustee of the Year, an honorary Doctor of Arts degree from Regis College, an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree from Suffolk University and an honorary Doctor of Commercial Science degree from Bentley University Graduate School of Business.

Dawn-Marie lives in Cape Coral with her husband Norman Marcus; her son, daughter-in-law and two grandchildren live nearby.

8260 College Parkway, Suite 101 • Fort Myers, FL 33919 • 239-274-5900
www.floridacommunity.com