

SAM GALLOWAY, JR.
Southwest Florida Community Foundation

Sam Galloway, Jr., his various car dealerships and his good reputation are well known in the Lee County area and across the state. As President of the Galloway Family of Dealerships, he heads one of the oldest and most respected organizations in this area, which was started by his father in 1927. Sam has been honored for his work by being nominated to the Ford Motor Company's Salute to Dealers Program.

His affiliation with the Southwest Florida Community Foundation began in 1992 as a Trustee, where he served as Vice President and President of the Board and now is a Senior Advisor.

As a Fort Myers native and graduate of Fort Myers High School, Sam Galloway puts back into his community by working for numerous charitable causes and with many civic organizations. He is particularly interested in those that promote harmony and goodwill within the community, businesses and the government.

Besides the Foundation, other non-profits that have benefited from his know-how and skills are:

- President of Edison-Ford Winter Estates Foundation
- Past President Edison Festival of Light
- Community Cooperative Ministries – The Soup Kitchen
- Salvation Army Board
- American Cancer Society
- Lee County Sheriff's Office "Walkie-Talkie" Walk
- Holiday Sing-a-Long

Sam Galloway received Southwest Florida's First Altruist of the Year Award in 2000 given by Lee Interfaith Volunteer Caregivers for service to his community.
