

ROBBIE B. ROEPSTORFF
Good Neighbor Community of Sanibel-Captiva

Robbie Roepstorff was born in Florence, Alabama, and has resided in Sanibel 1977 and is married to Geoffrey, and they are the parents of Matthew. She has been the President of Edison National Bank since its inception of 1997. Mrs. Roepstorff began her banking career in 1974 and is a past director of the Florida Bankers Association and currently serves as a member of FBA's Government Relations Committee.

Mrs. Roepstorff has extensive community involvement. Her many community and philanthropic activities include the following:

- American Heart Association – Director and past President
- American Heart Association Heart Ball 2002 Chair and 2005 Co-Chair
- Bishop Verot High School – Director
- Children's Advocacy Center – Capital Campaign Member
- Edison Ford Winter Estates Foundation - Director
- Edison Pageant of Light – member
- Fort Myers Women's Community Club - member
- Greater Fort Myers Chamber of Commerce – member
- Horizon Council Foundation – President and immediate past Chair
- Real Estate Investment Society (REIS) – Member and past President
- Roadway Landscape Advisory Committee - Lee County Commissioner appointed representing Horizon Council
- Sanibel School Advisory Council - Business Representative
- Sanibel-Captiva Chamber of Commerce – member
- The Foundation for Lee County Public Schools - Director/Executive Committee
- Uncommon Friends Foundation - Director
- Hope Hospice of Lee County – Director and immediate past Chair
- Lee Memorial Health Systems Foundation – Director
- LMHS Community Visioning Steering Committee
- Sanibel Community Association - Director

Her professional recognitions are as follows:

- Governor Appointment 1997-1999 – Commissioner to the Florida Transportation Commission
- ATHENA Award Recipient in 2002 - presented annually by local chambers of commerce throughout the United States to an individual exemplifying excellence in the individual's business or profession, serving the community in a meaningful way, and for assisting women in developing their leadership potential. Lee County's third year recipient.
- 2004 Sanibel-Captiva Chamber Citizen of the Year Award
- 2004 University of North Alabama Alumnus of the Year Award
- 2006 Lee County Business Leadership Hall of Fame Laureate Award (Junior Achievement)